

THE TRUE SPORT PRINCIPLES IN ACTION

TRUE SPORT

PLAY FAIR

Behavioural indicators of someone who lives the Play Fair principle include understanding and respecting the rules of the game, contributing to an equitable environment, and having a willingness to hold themselves and others accountable.

A PARTICIPANT WHO LIVES THE PLAY FAIR PRINCIPLE:

- › Competes within the rules.
- › Exhibits helpful attitudes and behaviours.
- › Has integrity.

- › Makes ethical decisions.
- › Understands and respects the rules of their sport or activity.
- › Is committed to fairness.

- › Welcomes accountability.
- › Believes that success is more satisfying when competition is fair.

A TRUE SPORT ENVIRONMENT THAT EXEMPLIFIES THE PLAY FAIR PRINCIPLE:

- › Is inclusive.
- › Promotes equity.
- › Is supportive and encourages fair participation.
- › Holds people accountable without criticizing.

truesport.ca

Queen's UNIVERSITY